Dear Ms. Free:

This is in response to the letter from Mr. Wm. Bradford Reynolds, Chairperson of the Interagency Coordinating Council (ICC), to Mr. William J. Casey, Director of Central Intelligence, concerning the technical assistance provided by the U.S. Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board (ATBCB). We appreciate the fine work of the ATBCB. We have for years made full use of its guidelines in our efforts to remove barriers that might hinder the full participation of disabled persons in Agency employment.

To the extent allowed by law and national security considerations, the CIA is pleased to participate with the ICC and ATBCB in promoting full accessibility. Questions or requests for information should be directed to [redacted] Handicapped Program Manager, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity, Central Intelligence Agency, Washington, D.C. 20505, or phone [redacted]

Sincerely,

Office of the Assistant Attorney General

Washington, D.C. 20530

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

I am writing on behalf of the Interagency Coordinating Council (ICC) to inform you of the technical expertise offered by the U.S. Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board (ATBCB) on questions concerning accessibility for physically handicapped persons. The ICC is responsible for fostering better coordination among agencies charged with implementing and enforcing regulations issued under Title V and, therefore, encourages you to contact the ATBCB as part of the Council's responsibilities. The ICC was established under §507 of the Rehabilitation Act, as amended, and is composed of members from the Departments of Health and Human Services, Labor, Education, and Justice, the Office of Personnel Management, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and the Architectural and Transportation Barriers Compliance Board. The Attorney General has requested that I chair the ICC in his behalf.

The ATBCB has a highly trained technical staff with considerable expertise in solving accessibility problems economically and effectively. Assistance may be requested from the ATBCB on how to comply with the Architectural Barriers Act of 1968, as amended, and Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, which includes §504 of that Act. Technical assistance may be obtained on specific accessibility problems or the ATBCB can be called upon to assist in the development of systems for ensuring accessibility to agency facilities, programs, services, and employment.

Specific information on ATBCB programs, resources, and publications may be obtained by contacting Ms. Sally Free, Office of Technical Services, ATBCB, 330 C Street, S.W., Room 1010, Washington, D.C., 20202, or by calling FTS 202-472-2700 (voice or TDD).

The ATBOB would also like to understand better your particular needs and asks that you provide the name, title, address, and phone number of a person who may be contacted to obtain further information. The name of the contact person should be provided to Ms. Free at the above address.

Please let me know if there is any way in which the ICC can be of additional assistance to your agency.

Sincerely,

Wm. Bradford Reynolds
Chairperson, ICC
